Mrs. Juanita Roberts
Personal Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Roberts:

Just a note to thank you for your help and efforts to secure the document of so much importance to Mr. McCone. With the numerous daily demands on your time, we appreciated your finding the time to do what you could to help.

I apologize for being the instigator responsible for getting you disturbed at home last night by some telephone calls in connection with the whole problem.

Maybe some day the shoe will be on the other foot and I can be of some assistance to you. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if the need arises.

Sincerely,

STAT
